This document is hereby regraded to ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ in accordance with the letter of 18 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence, Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008

1. It is rumored in Sao Paulo that the Communist Party of Brazil, together with Sao Paulo's Partido Trabalhista Brasileiro, plus some dissatisfied factions of the Uniao Democratica Nacional, desire to support Oswaldo Aranha for President, and ask for the "abdication" of President Dutra. 25X1X6

2. In connection with this rumor, [redacted] Aranha, former Brazilian representative to the United Nations Security Council, upon his arrival recently in Sao Paulo, was the subject of a warm welcome and reception by Governor Adhemar de Barros. During his stay in Sao Paulo, Aranha had many private political discussions, one of which was with Dr. Angelo Sanchez Segura, Communist Party functionary.
